 - Women's steel tip – 12.0
 - Men's soft tip – 23.0
 - Women's soft top – 16.0
- f. Must be in good standing with the ADA.

1.2 Length of term. Professionals are determined on January 1st of each calendar year. Their Professional status begins January 15th and ends on December 31st of the same calendar year.

1.3 Verification of Identity. When asked Professionals must provide identification in both of the following forms at tournaments and pro events:

- a. ADA Professional status card
- b. Driver's License or photo ID

RULE 2 - DUES

2.1 Duties and Privileges. A professional is considered to have agreed to comply with the ADA Professional Darter Rules and Regulations and is entitled to the privileges of Professional status. In the event a Professional resigns, or is suspended from Professional status, he or she will forfeit all prizes, cash and privileges of their Professional status.

2.2 Payment of Dues. All Professionals must pay membership dues to the ADA on an annual basis. Any Professional who does not meet their dues obligations will be prohibited from competing in all Professional Darter events and will forfeit all Professional status privileges. If the Professional status is terminated, the member must resolve any conduct violations or financial obligations prior to reinstating their Professional status. Reinstatement decisions will be at the discretion of the President of the ADA.

2.3 Resignations. Any Professional who wishes to resign his or her Professional status must notify the President of the ADA/CEO in writing.

RULE 3 – ADA PROFESSIONALS’ CODE OF ETHICS

3.1 Code of Ethics. The ADA requires that its Professionals conduct themselves at all times in conformity with the ADA Professionals’ Code of Ethics. The title “Professional Darter” must be, and at all times remain synonymous with honor, service and fair dealing. Integrity, fidelity to the sport of darts and a sense of great responsibility to employers, employees, manufacturers, clients and others professionals, should transcend all thought of material gain in the motives of the true Professional Darter. The conduct of each Professional must always be in keeping with this ongoing standard. If, at any time, ADA officials have reason to believe that a Professional Darter is acting in violation of the ADA Professionals’ Code of Ethics, disciplinary action will be taken.

3.2 Code of Ethics Violations. Specific violations of the ADA Professionals’ Code of Ethics include, but are not limited to, the following:

3.2.1 Defaming the Sport of Darts. A Professional allowing the use of his or her name or likeness in such a manner as to defame the sport of darts and/or the ADA. As used in these Rules, “defame” means use, conduct, or action that the ADA believes will cause disgrace or harm to the reputation of the sport of darts or the ADA.

3.2.2 Failure to Meet Obligations. A Professional failing to promptly meet his or her Professional status, responsibilities or Professional contractual obligations.

RULE 4 – ADA PROFESSIONALS’ CONDUCT

4.1 General. When competing in any ADA event, including, but not limited to the American Dart League, ADA Championships, and making public appearances, a professional must adhere to and abide by all aspects of the ADA Professionals’ Code of Ethics (Rule 3) and this Rule 4 and may not publicly criticize or defame the integrity of the ADA, its members, officers or staff, tournament sponsor, host location, and employees of the host location or spectators.

4.2 Dress Code. Proper dress code is required at all ADA events.
Pro Darter Events

Men and Women strictly enforced. Dress slacks, sport collared shirts, polos, button down dress shirts and/or team logo shirts (approved by ADA Officials). NO denim pants, NO t-shirts, NO sleeveless shirts. Casual leather or open toe canvas shoes are permissible. NO flip flop sandals permitted. NO hats.

4.3 Representation Use of fowl or vulgar language or intoxication is prohibited.

RULE 5 – DISCIPLINARY ACTION

5.1 General. In the event a Professional violates the ADA Professionals' Code of Ethics, any provisions of these rules and regulations, or whose conduct is otherwise likely to injure or adversely affect the reputation or standing of the ADA, the Professional will be subject to disciplinary action and hereby agrees and acknowledges the right and authority of the appropriate agents, to take any of the following actions pursuant to the provisions of this rule:

5.1.2a Probation. Place the Professional on probation.

5.1.2b Suspension. Suspend the Professional from Professional status.

5.2 Charges outlined here:

5.2.1 Imposition of Penalty. All charges brought against a Professional must be in written form, and submitted to the President/CEO of the ADA.

5.2.2 Notification of Charges. The ADA President / CEO will then notify the accused Professional of the substance of those charges and offer the Professional the opportunity to respond to the charges and explain his or her conduct.

5.3 Action and Disposition of Offense. Within ten (10) days of the date of such notification, the ADA will issue a ruling on the situation and notify the Professional of any penalties to be imposed against him or her.

5.4 Conduct Penalty while on Probation. Any conduct offense while on probation will result in a suspension, the length to be determined by the ADA President/CEO.

5.5 Appeals.

5.5.1 Time Limited to File an Appeal. The President of the ADA must receive an appeal within ten (10) days from the date of the written notification of the imposition of the penalty. Failure to make an appeal in a timely manner will preclude the Professional from any later attempt to contest the charges brought and the penalty imposed against him or her.

5.5.2 Appeal Review Process and Member Notification. The President will notify the Professional of the decision on the initial appeal within ten (10) days of its receipt.

5.5.3 Eligibility to Compete. A Professional who files an appeal may compete in Championships pending the outcome, provided the appeal is in writing and includes all defenses or mitigating circumstances claimed. The Professional may include signed statements of witnesses.

5.6 Harmless. Each Professional agrees to release and hold harmless, all employees of the ADA, any Appeals Committees formed, any individual ADA member thereof, and all officers, employees, agents and other ADA representatives, acting in their official and individual capacities, from any and all claims, demands, damages and causes of action whatsoever, in law or in equity, arising in connection with any charges brought and/or penalties imposed against him or her including, but not limited to, any damages caused by loss of income or sponsorship.

RULE 6 – CHAMPIONSHIP GUIDELINES

6.1 General. All Professionals must maintain a professional appearance with the dress code and personal grooming while participating in an ADA Championship or other Professional event. The Championship Director has the authority to interpret and implement this regulation, subject to the oversight of the ADA President / CEO. The Championship Director must approve all questionable attire before it is worn during a Championship.

6.2 Beverage Policy. Professionals must consume all beverages from containers approved by the Championship Director during competition. Professionals if drinking will drink responsible.

6.3 Media Photographs and Interviews. Any Professional being photographed or interviewed for television in conjunction with an ADA Championship, whether before or after the event must meet all attire guidelines set by the ADA.

6.4 Championship Commitment. Any Professional who is confirmed as a Championship participant and fails to compete MUST personally notify the Championship Director prior to the scheduled event to avoid penalties.

6.5 Media Guidelines Professionals must attend all functions designated as mandatory by the ADA during a Championship event in which they are competing.

6.5.1 Professionals' Introductions. Professionals must be present for Professionals' introductions prior to the Championship.

6.5.2 Media/Public Relations (PR) Appearances. Professionals must cooperate with all reasonable media requests made through the ADA during the year.

RULE 7– MONTHLY APPEARANCES

7.1 General. ADA Professionals are required to make monthly (1 a month) appearances in their local area including but not limited to Pro Tours, Pro Blind Draw Bounty's, American Dart League Championships and/or any other ADA events requested by the Local ADA Representative and/or ADA Home Office.

FUTURE REVISIONS

The ADA reserves the right to revise in whole or in part the contents of the ADA Professional Darter Certification Agreement Rules and Regulations at any time deemed necessary, especially with respect to anticipated corporate sponsorship and television involvement. Notice of any such changes will be given to the Professionals in such manner as the ADA deems reasonable. All such revisions will be binding on the Professionals upon ADA giving such notice.
